

Free resources

Aging Connection, published monthly by the Ohio Department of Aging, keeps members of Ohio's aging network up-to-date on professional development activities and issues affecting older citizens, including state and federal policies and benefits. Topics include Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security, energy assistance, emergency preparedness, research, consumer issues, helpful Web sites and much more.

<http://www.aging.ohio.gov/news/agingconnection/>

Boomerang, published monthly by the Ohio Department of Aging, is a free, lifestyles e-mail newsletter for baby boomers and "young" seniors. Built on the notion that "it all comes back to you," Boomerang offer readers interesting, entertaining and helpful articles that will help you throw yourself, your time and your talents into life, family and other endeavors, and reap the rewards that come back.

<http://www.aging.ohio.gov/news/boomerang/>

Side-by-Side Comparison of Major Health Care Reform Proposals - Kaiser Family Foundation

<http://www.kff.org/healthreform/sidebyside.cfm>